College of Arts & Sciences

What's Coming?

ITS has developed a new, modernized design intended for all UNCG websites. All sites will migrate to the new design by the end of 2023.

Next Generation WordPress Theme ("NGWP")

- ITS has developed a new theme referred to as NGWP or NextGen.

- The NextGen theme uses cleaner graphical blocks, a widescreen layout, and has useful new features.

- Already migrated sites include UNCG Main Site, Admissions, and UNCG Magazine.

- There is a learning curve if you are an existing UNCG site editor.

SHOWCASE
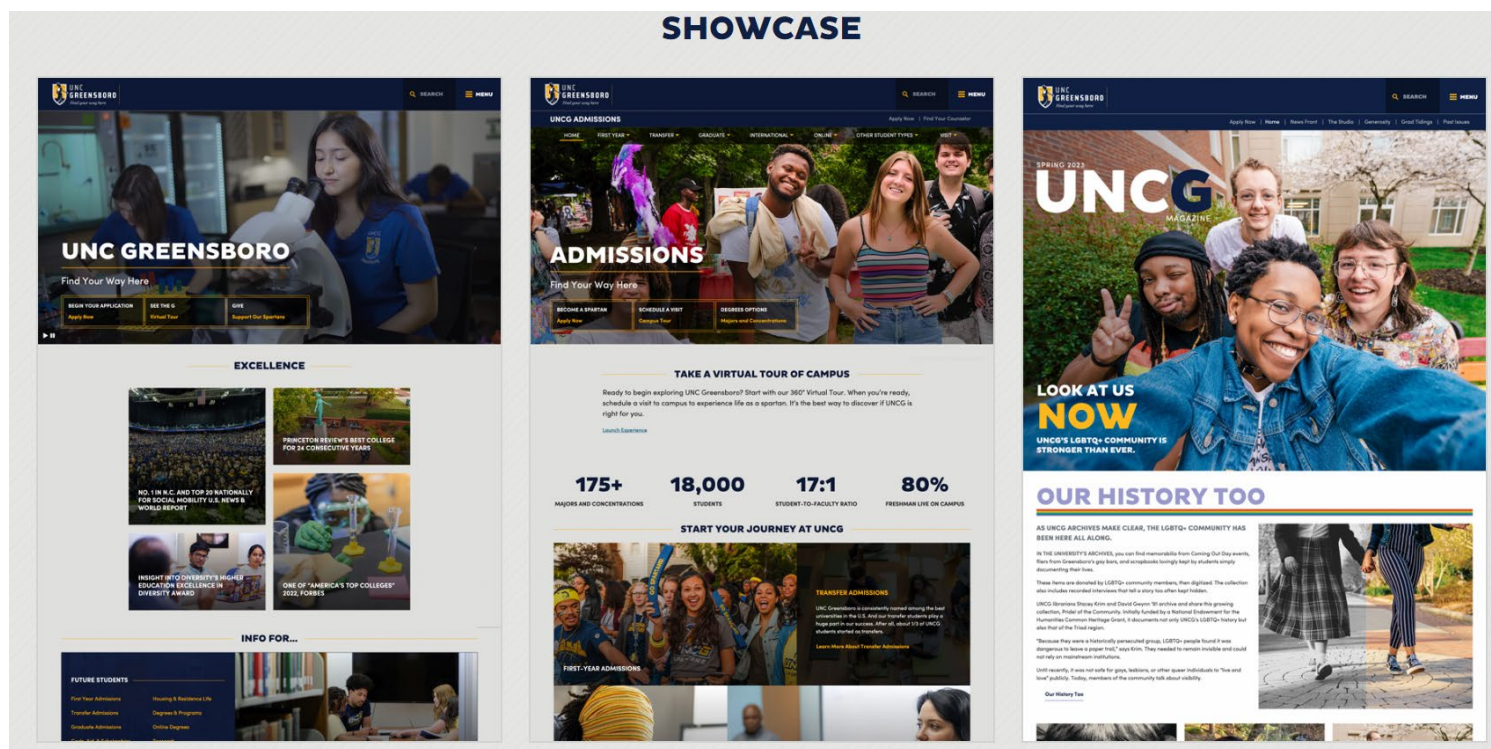

What to expect
- Each site needs to be evaluated for content that is Redundant, Outdated, or Trivial (ROT) – See guidelines here and here
- Sites can be re-structured and re-worked at this time
- Department Content Managers can work with CAS Communications and Website representatives to develop the best representation of their department
- Designs have many built-in flexible options for customizing and meeting your departmental needs
- Directories will be dynamic but customizable
- Each department will need to also have a Directory Manager assigned

What to keep in mind

- UNCG's target audience for web content is prospective students
- Branding standards give a cohesive appearance so that we all look like we are part of UNCG
  - Department-specific branding kits are available here!
- Some materials can be managed outside of UNCG sites
- Less wordy, more graphical

What we can't do

- Access the web server directly (FTP/SFTP)
- Add third-party plugins without ITS approval
- Move everything as-is

New Directory

- Directories will be dynamic (pulling information from Banner)

- UNCG main directory gives a glimpse, but not the full picture of what to expect

- Each site will be able to filter their department for their directory page

- Each faculty and staff member will have their own Employee Profile page

- Some available options will be:
  - Professional Title
  - Photo, following Spartan Card standards
  - Phone Override. This is available as some employees with front facing positions would rather have a front desk or main department number listed instead of their personal number.
  - Is VIP? Dean or Department Head. One per site.
  - Personal Pronouns. If the employee has stated preferred pronouns, you can select them here.
  - Faculty and Staff-specific profile templates, such as Research and Publications for faculty

- Your Department's Directory Manager will facilitate getting that content to us
